Dear Golfer for Peace:

Domestic Violence Action Center (DVAC) is serving the community and we know that the agency's presence has made an enormous difference in the lives of thousands of people. The work has begun to coordinate Domestic Violence Action Center's 10th Annual Golf Tournament, "Chipping Away at Domestic Violence". Your presence and generosity helped make last year's Tournament the success it was!

Information about our Chipping Away at Domestic Violence Golf Tournament is enclosed for your consideration. The Tournament, scheduled for Friday, April 28, 2017 will be held at the Waialeale Country Club.

Funds raised at this event support the desperately needed services provided every day by the Domestic Violence Action Center programs. In the previous 17 years, DVAC has completed 59,763 safety plans, conducted 55,466 risk assessments, made 8,356 court appearances, opened 6,361 legal cases, had telephone contact with 280,746 callers and trained 69,233 students, educators and service providers.

We shall look forward to hearing from you. Should you have any questions, we are happy to hear from you. Your participation will assist us in remaining anchored in the community using our expertise to serve victims directly as they work to get safe and assisting the community to better understand this complex and costly community problem.

We are so grateful for your consideration of this request for support.

Very Truly, and In Peace,

Nanci Kreidman, MA
Chief Executive Officer
